

Scarburg

Severy

B-196. Edw. Scarbrough - 46-1734. 115 a h-s. m. Bl. w. sw. - Lt. R. H. Procter & sd Scarbrough.

Edmund Scarburg

d. Edmund, born 1647- died 1711/2. Married (1) prior to Sept. 17, 1672 an Ursilla, whose surname has not been found.

Issue: Ursilla (living 1672), married by 1693 Richard Bayly.
Hannah, married by 1696 to Edmund Bayly.
Elizabeth, married by 1694/5 to Phillip Parker.
Edmund, edlest son, deceased by 1714. No issue.

Edmund Scarburg married (2) probably by 1692 an Elizabeth- whose surname is not know.

Issue: Edmund, second son of the same name, born in 1692.
Mitchell, born August 13, 1695.
Mary, Tabitha, Mitalda, Edmund Memoria (Daughter).

e. Listleton, recieved land patent, September 4, 1651. He died under age and without issue, He may be a son by the first wife, Mary, or by Col. Edmund Scarburg's second wife, also an unknown Mary. (See Note N.)

From the records it appears that Mary Scarburg, first wife of Col. Edmund, was deceased prior to July 14, 1654. On August 28, 1654, Lieut Charles, which was ordered to be recorded as provided by law for such Orphan's estates.

Mary Scarburg, the second wife of Col. Edmund, died at Accomack County, between October 18 and December 15, 1691. (Will Accomack County, (1682-97), P. 288.

Notes.

- a. Alumni Cantabrigienses (Venn), Vol. 4, p.28.
- b. Died Jan. 8, 1605. Will dated Sept. 5, 1604 proved January 11, 1605. Consistory Court of Norwich (England,) Original Wills (1605), No. 134
- c. Ibid: Note A.
- d. Edmund Scarburg witnessed and wrote his father's willin 1604
- e. Ibid: Note a/
- f. Register Scetann (1550-1619), St. Martin's-in-the Field Middlesex County, England. Harleian Society Publications, Vol. 25,p.48.
- g. Hening: Vol. I., PP. 147-9.

original in Blanche Adams Chapman family folder file in Scarburg folder

Edmund Scarburg

Notes (Continued)

- H. Ibid: p. 187
- I. Nothing is known concerning Hannah, wife of Capt. Edmund Scarburg
- j. Patent Book, No. 1., (1623-1643), P. 322. Virginia State Library, Richmond.
- k. Hening, Vol. I., pp. 239, 289, 298/99, 339/40, 369/71, 414, 421/22.
- l. Nugent: Cavaliers and Pioneers, p. 119.
- m. Nottingham, Stratton: Accomack County Court Certificates (1663-1709 p. 49; Pub. Onancock, Va., (1929). New York Public Library.
- n. Northampton County: Deeds, wills, Etc., No. 5 (1654-55), p. 23
Cf: On August 28, 1654, a peposition bb Mrs. Mary Scarburg concerning an affair whihh took place at Accannock in the house of her husband, Col. Edmund Scarburg, on or about "14 day of July last (or thereabouts)" below.
- o. Ibid: Cf: "This daye(in open Court) feeft. Collon Edm: Scarburgh did Produce an Acct. of ye estates of his eldest sonn Charles Scarburgh, which said Acct is by order to bee Recorded as in such cases is provided is lawe for Orphants Estates."

Obviously, this Charles Scarburg, eldest son of Col. Edmund was a son of the first wife Mary, who was deceasedproir to July 14, 1654 but the date of her death has not been found.

Captain Edmund Scarburg -(1617-1634/35)

Edmund Scarburg, the emigrant to Virginia, baptized Dec. 29, 1584 in N. Walsham Church, Norfolk County, England, was the son of Henry Scarburg (the Elder) and his wife Elizabeth, whose surname has not been determined.

Edmund Scarburg attended Mr. Brigg's School, Norwich, England then admitted sizar at Caius College, April 15, 1602. He probably studied Law at one of the Inns of Court where, according to his father's will, he was to remain until he had taken "the Degree of Barester."

Edmund Scarburg and wife Hannah (Butler,), were living in the p Parish of St. Martin's-in-the Field, Middlesex Co., England, where four children were baptized, viz:

Charles, eldest son, baptized Dec. 29, 1615. Admitted to Caius College, Mar. 4, 1632/33. Member of the Royal College of Physicians(London), attended Charles II, Knighted Aug. 15, 1660. Married Mary Daniels whom he had issue. Died at Cranford(Middlesex) Feb. 26, 1693. Burried in the Churc

Edmund, second son, baptized Oct. 2, 1617. He is the emigrant ancestor of the Scarburg family of Accomack and Northampton on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

Rodolphus, baptized Aug. 2, 1620, burried Feb. 27, 1622/23.

Hannah, baptized Dec. 13, 1622, buried in the above church on Jan. 14, 1623.

While date of Edmund and Hannah Scarburg's Arrival in Virginia is not know, he must have established residence on the Eastern Shore (Va.) for some time prior to the appointment in March, 1629/30 as Burgess for Accomack.

Edmund Scarburg

From 1655 to 1666 he was Surveyor-General of Virginia, being comissioned for life in 1666. He was a wealthy land owner, planter, owner of many ships which plied between Virginia, New England, Holland England, the West Indies and other sea ports. He also employed tanners for his shoe industry, wood-cutters, coppers, carpenters, tailors, and men to assist in salt-making for the use of the inhabitants of Accomack and Northampton Counties.

Col. Edmund Scarburg married (1) Mary - whose surname has not been determined. This marriage took place probably about 1637-38, but the first patent in which Mary is mentioned as wife of Edmund Scarburg, is dated August 3, 1640 (included 100 acres for his own personal adventure and that of his wife, Mary.)

Col. Edmund Scarburg and his first wife, Mary, (above), were the parents of the following children, born in Virginia:

- A. Tabitha, born about 1639- died 1717/8. Married (1) John Smart.

Issue: Tabitha Smart

Married (2) Deverax Browne.

Issue: Edmund Browne born 1660-died in Turkey 1678.

She married (3) Gen. John Custis of Arlington and (4) Col. Edward Hill of Charles City County.

- b. Charles, eldest son, born 1643- died 1701/2. Married Elizabeth Bennett, daughter of Richard Bennett, Governor of Virginia.

Issue: ~~XX~~
Bennett, Charles, Henry, Anne, Mary, Sarah Tabitha.

- c. Matilda, born 1644- died intestate 1720. Married Lt. Col. ~~XX~~ John West, only son of Anthony and Anne West.

Issue: Anthony, Alexander, Johathan, Bennony, John West the Elder, John West the Younger, Anne, Sarah, Mary, Scarburg (dau.), Matilda, Frances, Catherine.

Edmund Scarburg

Two daughters were born in Virginia: Hannah Scarburg, who married John Wise of Clifton, and Catherine Scarburg, who was the wife of Randall Revell of Somerset County, Maryland,

In September, 1632, as Captain Edmund Scarburg, he was one of the Commissioners for the Plantation of Accawmacke, member of the Council and General Assembly (Va) in 1631-1633. He died instate at Accomack between his last appearance in court records (April, 1634), and Prior to January 9, 1635 when an entry recorded that Hannah Scarburg, widow, sold cattle to Captain Thomas Graves. It was witnessed by Edmund Scarburg, her son.

It is believed that Edmund Scarburg was the only son to accompany his parents to Virginia. He is mentioned in Accomack records on March 20, 1633/34, at which time he signed as a witness when his father (Capt. Edmund) sold two wild cows to John Harlow.

On November 28, 1634, Edmund Scarburg was granted two hundred acres in Accomack on Maggitye Baye, of which fifty acres were due him in right of his late father, Captain Edmund Scarburg, fifty acres for his own personal adventure, a similar amount for the personal adventure of his mother, Hannah Scarburg, plus fifty acres due him for the transportation (at his own charge and cost) of a former servant, Robert Butter. (Butler, Buttons).

Edmund Scarburg was Burgess for Northampton County, March 4, 1642/3 1644/5, Speaker, March 29, 1645, Burgess, November 3, 1647, and appointed (with Nathaniel Littleton) on October 12, 1648, to collect "the levye" of Northampton County. Also Burgess, March 13 1659/60, member of the council and Assembly (1653, 1655/6, 1659/60, he was recorded Burgess for Accomack County.